60th Annual Physicians Alumni Weekend Schedule of Events
Friday, Nov. 3 - Saturday, Nov. 4, 2017
To register, visit: www.mizzou.com/PAW17

Events Scheduled for Friday, Nov. 3, 2017

7:45 a.m. to 4 p.m: Scientific Program, Acuff Auditorium, MU School of Medicine
Location: One Hospital Drive, Columbia, Missouri (corner of Kentucky Avenue and Deans Drive, Parking in Tiger Avenue Garage)
Program includes lectures from MU School of Medicine faculty, distinguished alumni and the keynote Milton D. Overholser Memorial Lecture. It will include breakfast and lunch and parking. Registration will be open at 7:15 a.m.

8 a.m: “Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery – From Antiquity to Allotransplantation”
Presented by Randy Sherman, MD ’77
Vice Chair, Department of Surgery, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center
Professor of Clinical Surgery, Keck School of Medicine USC

8:40 a.m: (Title TBD): Topic to be addressed: Reducing the extent of surgery for breast cancer while maintaining safety.
Presented by Lisa Jacobs, MD ’92
Associate Professor of Surgery, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
Dr. Jacobs’ focus is melanoma and breast cancer and she has a clinical interest in early stage melanoma. Dr. Jacobs is interested in improving the overall quality of life for breast cancer patients.

9:20 a.m: “Therapeutic Targeting of Macrophage Mitochondria and Immunology in Pulmonary Fibrosis”
Presented by A. Brent Carter, MD ’92
Scientific Director of the Interstitial Lung Disease Program and Professor of Lung Biology
University of Alabama at Birmingham

10 a.m: BREAK

10:15 a.m: “Diet, Lifestyle, Genetics and the risk of Age-Related Macular Degeneration”
Presented by Karen Gehrs, MD ’87
Professor of Ophthalmology and Visual Sciences
University of Iowa Carver College of Medicine
Dr. Gehrs’ research interests include age-related macular degeneration, diabetic eye disease and the role of lifestyle and genetics in age-related eye diseases.

11 a.m: Milton D. Overholser Memorial Lecture
“Shaping the Future of Medical Education, the Health of the Public, and the Health of Physician Practices”
Presented by David Barbe, MD ’80
President of the American Medical Association
Vice President of Regional Operations, Mercy Springfield Communities
Noon to 1 p.m: Lunch in Acuff Gallery for registered attendees

Noon to 3 p.m: Medical Student Ambassador Tours

1 p.m: State of the Medical School, Acuff Auditorium*
Presented by Dean Patrice Delafontaine
*This will also mark the start of the joint session between the Medical Alumni Board of Governors and Medical School Foundation Board of Directors, but all alumni are invited to attend the dean’s address.
Note: If you are interested in a tour, attending the dean’s presentation or the afternoon sessions, but are concerned about parking options, please call 573-882-5021.

3 p.m: Final CME Session: Show-Me ECHO: How a Telehealth Initiative is Changing Case Conferences to Provide Best-Practice Care Across Missouri
Presented by Karen Edison, MD ’89
Chair of the Department of Dermatology and Philip C. Anderson Professor
Medical Director, Missouri Telehealth Network
University of Missouri School of Medicine
Show-Me ECHO — which stands for Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes — allows teams to use video conferencing technology to train providers throughout the state to identify and treat chronic conditions. Show-Me ECHO offers clinics for asthma, autism, chronic pain management, dermatology and endocrinology. For more information, visit: http://medicine2.missouri.edu/show-me-echo/

3 p.m: Information Session: Mock Problem-Based Learning Sessions
New Medical Education Building
Presented by Ted Groshong, MD ’67 and Dr. Michael Hosokawa, EdD, Senior Associate Dean for Education
Sign up to participate in a mock PBL session where you will use your background to solve a mock clinical case and experience the learning model the School of Medicine implemented in 1993.

5:30 p.m: Student National Medical Association Reception, Country Club of Missouri
1300 Woodrail Avenue, Columbia, Missouri 65203

6 p.m: 60th Annual Medical Alumni Banquet at the Country Club of Missouri
1300 Woodrail Avenue, Columbia, Missouri 65203
A cocktail hour will begin at 6 p.m, with dinner to follow at 7 p.m.; there will be reserved tables for reunion classes. The suggested dress is semi-formal or cocktail attire. Cost: $75 per person.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 4, 2017

9 a.m. Reunion Brunch, New Medical Education Building
One Hospital Drive, Columbia, MO (Located at the intersection of Kentucky Blvd and Deans Drive)
The alumni office will host a brunch in the new building. Cost: $15 per person.

*Time TBD: Football Game vs. Florida, Memorial Stadium: Tickets: $75 per person. *Because of television schedules, game time will be announced approximately two weeks to 10 days prior to game day.